

COPY

April 22, 1959

Mr. E. B. White
North Brooklin
Maine

Dear Mr. White:

Here it is---lean and clean and sound as a dollar, which is what it costs. I have taken some satisfaction in a few of the other books I have worked on, but this one is my little pet, and anyone who doesn't love it will get no mercy from me. I hope you feel happy about it.

Additional copies of both editions will reach you soon. Copies of this one are being showered like rose petals on campuses from coast to coast; in a few months we'll know whether students are going to buy some. Our fingers are crossed, but our hopes are high.

Sincerely,

J. G. Case

JGC:jlb